ASSA ABLOY Entrance Systems

The global leader in door opening solutions

Make sure your shopping mall can handle a high customer count

A heavy flow of people and goods puts your entrances under pressure

With customers and deliveries coming in and out of your mall every day, you need entrances that will facilitate the flow of traffic and are prepared for a range of eventualities, including emergencies. Your entrances need to be up to the job whatever happens.

Without entrances that are optimal for your mall, you could risk:

- Unwanted downtime
- Avoidable damage
- Increased theft
- Avoidable injury

Entrances that are prepared for heavy footfall every day

Reliable and hard-wearing entrance systems keep customers shopping

It is crucial that all of your doors promote good flow and help to keep customers safe and comfortable. That is why ASSA ABLOY Entrance Systems has a full range of entrances that are specially engineered to accommodate large crowds. And with fast response service agreements available, you can be confident that any unplanned downtime will not hold you up for long.

Your retail support team

Our teams of architect consultants, sales advisors and service technicians can offer expert advice throughout the entire building life cycle

No matter the issue and no matter the entrance, we have doors that will help your business run smoothly

Reliable and secure deliveries

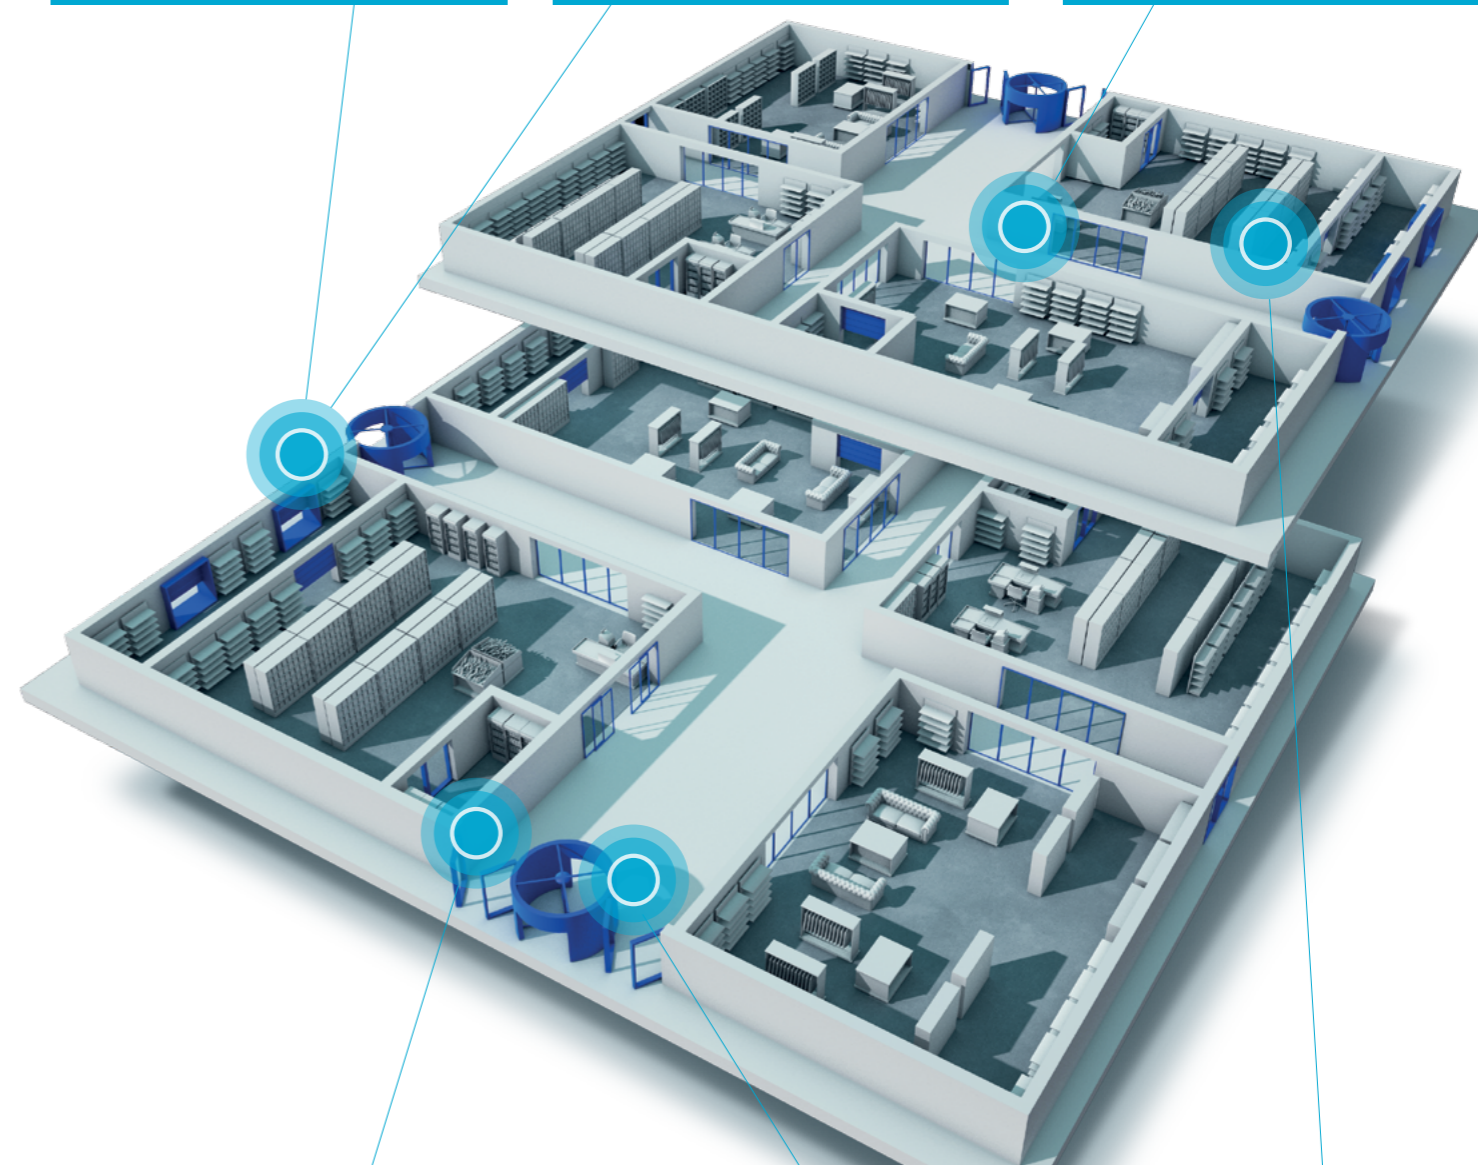

Robust, reliable and secure delivery entrances ensure regular deliveries run on time to all retailers, and keep delivered stock secure from theft

Secure your stock room

Rear access to the stock room needs to be secure to protect your store – swing doors with access control ensure only authorized staff can enter

Space-saving and attractive

The aesthetic of mall stores is enhanced by automatic entrances that let in light and operate silently, and because they are inside, you can choose slim frames or all-glass doors

Easy access for everyone

Ensure a heavy flow of shoppers can come and go all day, while giving access to those with limited mobility with revolving doors and automatic swing doors

Control your climate

Maintain a comfortable temperature for the hundreds of people in your mall with automatic revolving doors that are 'always closed' or swing doors enhanced with air curtains and TightSeal brushes to reduce temperature exchange

Make restocking easy

Enhance the efficiency of your store with automatic high-speed doors between stockroom and shop floor
