ASSA ABLOY

Maintain

Protect the hardware that your business depends on

Every entrance solution needs the right care, attention, and service to stay in great working order and to maximise its potential and lifecycle.

Whether it's fixing a problem before it escalates and needs to be repaired or assessing the equipment to make sure it's performing at the highest level, care and maintenance is essential.

That's where we can help. Our global service expertise helps you run a smooth and long-lasting operation through proactive and preventive actions that help increase everything from reliability, and availability to safety, while reducing both operational costs and downtime.

With our services we help you maintain your entrance solutions on an on-going basis, we make sure everything is working as intended and prevent unexpected breakdowns.

We take care of all your entrance solutions
